Shavuot

Shavuot is the anniversary and celebration of the giving of the Torah to the Jewish people, 3,330 years ago, at Mt. Sinai. The 2-day holiday begins this Saturday evening. The 10 Commandments will be read on Sunday, and everyone should be in shul to hear them. Yizkor will be recited on Monday.

Services will be held Sunday and Monday at 9:30 AM.
After services on Sunday, please join us for lunch provided by John and Michelle.

It is customary to stay up all night studying Torah on the first night of Shavuot (this coming Saturday night).

The all night Shavuot learning was as lively as usual
